PROMISE QUICK ACTION FOR SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Dawes Committee to Make Report This Week; Consolidation of Authority Under Single Head Planned.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Progress in solving the government's problem of caring for ex-service men, whether sick or disabled, or physically fit, but having financial claims to be adjusted, was made today at the first meeting of President Harding's special commission headed by Charles G. Dawes of Chicago. It was agreed that the administrative machinery operating separately for soldiers' relief should be consolidated under one central authority, probably a new executive officer who would be responsible to the President.

Heads of all soldier relief bureaus said they favored the general idea of a consolidated service bureau. The endorsement, Chairman Dawes said, promised quick solution of the problem as it related to the general administration of aid for men alleged to have suffered under the system of divided governmental responsibility.

PLAN IS APPROVED. Among those who expressed general endorsement of the plan were Surgeon-General Cummings of the Public Health Service, who said he would be willing to bring his service under the plan, so far as his work with soldiers is concerned; R. H. Hallett, acting director of the War Risk Bureau; and Tol Lambin, director of the Rehabilitation Division of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

Brig.-Gen. C. E. Sawyer, who appeared as the President's personal representative, declared emphatically that the plan should be retained as an entity. Chairman Dawes, however, expressed the belief that this service should be placed under the one directing head.

WAGES VARIED. When the war the wages in the British coal mining districts were high. The miners' strike, however, has reduced the wages in some districts to a level below that of the general public. The effect is not merely on our general trade and industry, but on the general welfare of the nation.

At the present time there is a serious overproduction of coal in Europe. The French cannot use any more than the amount of coal that they are receiving from Germany. The effect is not merely on our general trade and industry, but on the general welfare of the nation.

The British mines, with their enormous production and the existing coal shortage in Germany, are in a position to produce and export coal in large quantities. The effect is not merely on our general trade and industry, but on the general welfare of the nation.

GREEK ARMY IN FLIGHT.

Retreat is Harassed by the Turks.

Ten Thousand Men and Three Hundred Officers Lost in Unsuccessful Drive.

New Classes Called to Colors by Constantinople Do Not Come Forward.

BY HENRY WALES.

PARIS, April 5.—The entire Greek northern army on the Broussa front is beating a retreat, according to a dispatch received at the French Foreign Office via Constantinople.

The Greeks are reported to have lost 10,000 men and 300 officers in an unsuccessful drive against Eski-Shehr, and the offensive against the Kemalists has been abandoned until reinforcements arrive from Asia Minor.

Irregular Turk cavalry, offered by the Kemalists, is harassing the Greek retreat, charging the rear guards and capturing prisoners. The retreating Greeks are abandoning much material, including all that they captured from the Turks during the advance from Broussa.

Important masses of Turk cavalry, supported by Arab elements, is maneuvering for a raid around the right flank of the Greek army, which is retreating in confusion.

The Turkish forces are reported to have captured Eski-Shehr, and the Greek army is retreating in confusion.

NEW BASEBALL GAMBLING. CLEVELAND, April 5.—Seven men were arrested here late tonight following raids on a printing shop and a dwelling, which resulted in the seizure of nearly 1,000 printed baseball pool tickets and a declaration by the police that they had found a gambling establishment with headquarters in Cleveland. The men are charged with running a game of chance. Among them is the assistant cashier of a bank.

CROATS AND ITALIANS IN FATAL CLASH.

Troops of Italy Use Machine Guns on Assaults and Now Master Situation.

BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS. TRIESTE, April 5.—Several persons were reported to have been killed and about 100 wounded in a clash Monday between Croats and Italian Fascists, or extreme Nationalists, who were aided by Italian troops in Carnia, near Pola.

Fourteen of the Fascists were proceeding from Dignano and Pola for Carnia when they were attacked by 200 Croats, led by an alleged Croatian propagandist. A battle ensued, during which twenty carabinieri, the assistance of the Fascists, Italian reinforcements last night found the village surrounded by trenches and wire entanglements.

Meanwhile the Croats also were reinforced. Italian troops swept the surrounding country with machine gun fire. Latest reports state the Italian forces are masters of the situation.

STEEL PRICE SLASHING IS IMPROBABLE.

Bethlehem President Says America Has Nothing to Fear from Europe.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE. NEWARK (N. J.) April 5.—The Bethlehem Steel Corporation will avoid indulging in any aggressive price cutting campaign, President E. G. Grace told stockholders at the annual meeting here today.

Speaking of trade readjustments, he expressed the opinion that America has nothing to fear from foreign countries on steel orders.

He admitted, however, that Germany, on account of the low rate of exchange and its control of labor and wages, "could be a strenuous competitor" if that country were producing at normal rates.

LITTLE ENTENTE ARMY SAID TO BE ADVANCING TOWARD BUDAPEST; CHARLES LEAVES

VIENNA, April 5.—It is reported that Jugo-Slavia is mobilizing against Hungary. Budapest is much alarmed, as it fears Jugo-Slavia will demand that Funckirchen (a city 105 miles southwest of Budapest) be given as a pledge until the Trianon treaty is completely ratified. Other reports state that the Little Entente has given Jugo-Slavia a mandate over Funckirchen and that Jugo-Slav troops are advancing toward the city.

Representatives of the Little Entente have received orders to transmit an ultimatum to Hungary, fixing the time at which their demands must be executed.

Official circles in Vienna declare that former Emperor Charles' adventure is finished, and that Budapest and Steinhilber have reached a compromise as to his disposition. It is said that Charles' illness is genuine.

REACHES FEHRING. Announcement was made tonight by the Foreign Office that Charles arrived today at Fehring, where he boarded a train bound for Switzerland. The train left Fehring at 4:30 o'clock. It is reported that it will reach the Swiss frontier early Wednesday.

The Viennese government is breathing easier since Charles has started. His visit, however, has resulted in two portfolios being vacated, Minister of War Mueller and Minister of the Interior. Both have resigned. Both objected to a Volkwehr guard being placed over the city. This was an indignity to the former Emperor.

HARDING HAS DOCTRINE. President to Announce Principles of Foreign Policy in Message.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) WASHINGTON, April 5.—What will be known as the Harding doctrine of American participation in the stabilization of world peace, outlined perhaps in rank with the Monroe Doctrine as a principle of American policy, constitutes the salient feature of the peace plan that President will present to Congress next week, probably in person.

The Harding doctrine will proclaim the United States ready to cooperate with European powers to prevent or suppress any aggression by any nation or combination of nations threatening to disrupt the peace of the world.

WON'T ENTER LEAGUE. The President does not contemplate that the United States will go to the League of Nations, but rather than that in dealing with questions of world peace, for the time being at least. That it will not enter the present League of Nations with such modifications as have been proposed up to date is certain.

WOULD FIX STATUS OF MRS. EDDY.

Court Asked to Declare Her Active Officer of Christian Scientists.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE. BOSTON, April 5.—The question whether Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, who died in 1910, still is an active officer of the church, was raised today for the courts to decide.

Edwin A. Krauthoff of Washington, appearing at a hearing in the Supreme Court in one of the several phases of litigation involving the present government of the church, asked for an injunction to restrain any revision of the manual. He said he desired a declaration by the court that Mrs. Eddy, his founder, and the author of the manual, is an active officer of the church, just as much as the board of directors are active officers.

Judge Bailey remarked that he did not see how such a condition could possibly exist.

The judge denied the motion for a temporary injunction, but indicated that he would refer the question for fuller consideration to former Judge Frederic Dodge, as master of the church, who was cited by the board of directors from that body to prevent omission of his name as an officer of the church from a forthcoming new edition of the manual. It was agreed between counsel by stipulation that his name should not be removed for the present.

NAMELESS BALLOT USED IN ELECTION.

GOLDFIELD (Colo.) April 5.—A municipal election without a party ticket or the name of a single candidate on the ballot proved a success here today, except in one instance. A. J. Hansen and Fred Hanna received the same number of votes for Alderman and the new Council will be called upon to decide who is elected.

CHARGE BY BRIAND. The French Premier said that Germany had attempted to divide the Allies at the London conference, but failed. Germany then attempted to separate the United States from the Allies, but the American reply to Dr. Simons in the recent note handed him showed that "Germany has failed in this last desperate attempt before May 1."

Mr. Briand argued that since Germany refused the Paris agreement only the Versailles Treaty remains. He explained to the Senate that the greatest difficulty in the reparations settlement lay in the fact that Germany has not admitted

BERLIN'S HOPES GONE. BY GEORGE SCHLES. (BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) BERLIN, April 5.—Briand's hopes of friendly action from the Harding administration, which were hit hard recently, are now crumbling under the weight of the German attacks in the statements of Hughes, Knox, Viviani and Laurance, as reported in this last desperate attempt before May 1.

The official as well as popular feeling now is that friendship cannot be expected from America, but there still persists the impression that a "fair deal" will result when relations are resumed. This especially is the view of those officials (Continued on Second Page.)

BRITAIN RAPS COLBY'S STAND.

Reply in Mandate Attitude Made Public.

Contentions Held "Sincerely Consistent."

Cites Our Doctrine in Oil Fields of Mexico.

LONDON, April 5.—American contentions for equality of treatment for the citizens of all nations in mandated territories are held by the British government to be "sincerely consistent" with the attitude of the United States toward American oil interests in Mexico. The British view is expressed in a long reply to Secretary Colby's note of last November 26, which was made public here today.

The note signed by Lord Curzon, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, was delivered March 31 and in answer to Secretary Colby's explanation of the San Remo agreement between Great Britain and France relating to petroleum resources in Mesopotamia. That agreement, Lord Curzon said, was not fully understood. It appeared, adding, that it "aimed at no monopoly or exclusive rights."

The Mesopotamian agreement was said by Lord Curzon to be subject to all concessions in the Vilayets of Bagdad and Mosul granted to British interests before the war and not to be treated "merely as a matter of abstract principle," but rather as a basis for future negotiations. Rights acquired in Palestine by the Standard Oil Company "are no stronger" than these British rights, the note added.

Request of the American government that British rights thus acquired be disregarded, Lord Curzon added, was "sincerely consistent" with the attitude "adopted by the United States in regard to oil properties in Mexico."

The British note expressed agreement with the American argument that the world's oil resources be "open for development without reference to nationality," but noted that the act of the Philippine Legislature in 1920 reserves development of public mineral lands there to citizens of the United States or the Philippines. Such legislation cannot be regarded "as in contradiction of the general principle enunciated by the United States," it continued, and added:

"In this connection, I observe that Mr. Colby does not attempt to refute the statements contained in my note of August 3, last, concerning the action taken by the United States government to prevent the exploitation of British interests of such resources in Haiti and Costa Rica."

Lord Curzon made reference to Secretary Colby's "allusion" as to the world's supply and the statement that the United States possessed only one-twelfth approximately of world oil resources. The question, he said, was of subsidiary importance in the discussion, but added that while "the potentialities of the future are necessarily problematical, the disputed fact remains that at present United States oil production is 10 per cent and American interests in producing territory controls a further 12 per cent of the oil production of the world."

"It is not easy," therefore, Lord Curzon said, "to justify the United States government's insistence that American control should now be extended to resources which may be developed in mandated territories, and that, too, at the expense of the subjects of another state who have obtained a valid concession from the former government of those territories."

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Earl Curzon's reply to Secretary Colby's note on the San Remo oil agreement was received before the present administration came into office. It is under consideration, and it is understood that a reply soon will be drafted.

BRAND'S THREAT TO GERMANY.

connected with the indemnity question. I talked with one of the most important leaders of the London delegation. After saying that the reparations question is not so stagnant as generally believed, the official declared that the Knox peace resolution adopted at the time of the coming reparations discussion.

RELIES ON AMERICA.
"Although we have neither plans for the resumption of the conference nor a program, which America might consider, for arranging to pay the indemnity through American intervention," declared the official, "we believe that America will participate in the forthcoming dealings if only to protect her own interests. Leaving aside the question of friendship, America is in a position from purely business considerations to lighten Europe's burdens, successfully conclude arrangements and at the same time to protect her own billions in war loans to the Allies."

Should America, following the conclusion of a peace treaty, invite the Entente and Germany to reopen negotiations, she would find Germany ready. The present position, however, precludes either side from making the first move, both declared. The committee tonight in London said at London and that a compromise is impossible."

without endangering public health. It was stated authoritatively tonight that the commission would complete its investigation and present its recommendations to President Harding by the week-end.

The committee tonight in executive session to consider testimony heard today.

BEHNS UNSUITABLE.
Dr. T. W. Salmon of the Rockefeller Institute told the committee one-half of the government's beds were unsuitable for tubercular cases. "We know there are 4000 such patients," he said, "and 5000 mental patients who are not treated by the government because they refuse to go into charity and State institutions."

The question of hospital facilities resulted in a request from T. W. Miller, Allen Property Custodian, that Chairman Dawes poll the commission to ascertain whether it favored asking Congress to increase its last appropriation of $18,000,000 and provide a permanent hospital building program. The question was unanimously endorsed.

President Harding today asked the commission to make "diligent inquiry" of government department heads in an effort to find out just where the government agencies have been "lacking in authority, neglectful or failing in caring for disabled service men," he also asked that investigation be made of "the abuses which have developed."

HARDING'S STATEMENT.
"I have asked you to make an investigation into the administration of the law for caring for the crippled and injured soldiers of the late World War," said the President's statement. "There have been numerous complaints that the government is neglecting the coming care of disabled, to whom it owes every consideration, and these further complaints that there is tardiness in dealing with them and their claims which grew out of their service."

"I should like you to make diligent inquiry of department heads or with those associated with them, in an effort to find out just where the government agencies are in any way lacking in authority, neglectful or failing to carry out what is the unquestioned intent of Congress in its enactment of laws and the making of appropriations. There need be no inquiry into the intent of the government, because I think it is well understood that every agency desires to deal justly and generously with those of its defenders who were impaired in the nation's defense."

INQUIRY INTO ABUSES.
"I think it would be well, while you are making inquiries as to the failure to care for these service men, that you also make inquiry into the abuses which have developed, and look carefully into the regulations adopted so that you may know their probable effect in the future. It is well to realize that the American people so that you may know their gratitude to these men."

"The regulations adopted at this time are likely to be in effect for a full half century to come. In order to deal justly with these men and carry out a permanent policy it is exceedingly important to start on a firm foundation."

Dawes told his commission that it was known that a deplorable situation exists and that the President and Congress were anxious to remedy it.

"The condition exists," he declared, "because of lack of coordination among the agencies authorized by the law to care for the soldiers. Something must be accomplished. We will find the remedy and in continuous action until we do. The men on the other side worked at night. This relates to them. Let's cut out the dinner and get down to definite work right now."

DISCUSS STRIKE IN PARLIAMENT.

Union Affairs, speaking in the House of Lords in behalf of the government, declared that the stoppage of the coal trade was calamitous, deplorable and suicidal.

ONE OF STATE POLICY.
The question, he said, had ceased to be one of wages and had become one of state policy, affecting every industry.

"The food stocks in the country are ample and the government knows where they are," said the Secretary. "If any difficulty arises in the distribution of supplies the government has the organization ready for their transport. The steps are being taken for the provision of necessary food for the maintenance of public order and defense of public buildings, for the support of the police and for the protection of the railways who are engaged in the task of endeavoring to save the mines."

WANT PACIFICATION.
Premier Lloyd George, replying in the debate on the coal situation, declared that everybody wanted pacification in a very dangerous situation, if possibly compatible with the interests of the nation.

He contended, however, that subsidizing great industry out of taxation was wrong and indefensible, especially in view of the heavy taxation and the condition of the exchequer.

He recalled that the loss before March 31 on government control of the mines was more than $1,000,000 weekly.

The government would be willing, he contended, to undertake anything it could do in promoting an understanding between the miners and the owners, but it was essential that the miners should give every facility and assistance to prevent the pits from being destroyed.

After dismissing her chauffeur, Mrs. Rankine on the day of her disappearance, walked away from her automobile and disappeared among the pedestrians in a district filled with tenements inhabited principally by Italians. She was prominent socially.

HARDING WILL TELL DOCTRINE.

ing formulated by the President in the light of his study of the problem for several months and of the advice of his counselors in the Cabinet and in Congress.

REPEAL OF TREATY.
That part of the plan which pertains to the re-establishment of peace with the Central Powers is based upon a definite rejection of the Versailles Treaty and upon a declaration of peace in a resolution, similar to the Knox resolution, which is being drafted, according to present intentions, by Secretary Hughes. This resolution is intended to embody such changes in the Knox resolution as the President and Secretary Hughes deem necessary to conform to the Harding plan.

The Harding doctrine of American co-operation in the preservation of peace the President contemplates incorporating in the new resolution. It is said to resemble in essentials the declaration which Senator Knox drafted for inclusion in his resolution.

In the administration peace program, the President is understood to be convinced that there is no practical way of considering the Versailles covenant as a basis of the American peace program.

KNOX RESOLUTION.
As to the Knox resolution it was stated that the President voted for it while the Senate, that he spoke favorably for it in his speech of acceptance and that he now finds no reason to retract his position. The President's attitude on that score, this confirmed information from other quarters that the Knox resolution is the basis of the plan the President is formulating.

The President in discussing the matter with his advisers has concluded that he is not committed to a definite program in connection with the internal situation, that it is necessary to establish the program piecemeal instead of all at once.

Mr. Harding has declined to state his views on the matter, but in advance of his address to Congress next week. He has stated that the address would deal not only with the peace program but with international questions. The President has indicated that he likes the character of addressing Congress in person, which was established by President Wilson, having been impressed with a Senator with the pertinence of such a message in writing. He has told his friends that in all probability he will appear before the joint session of the two houses to deliver his message next Tuesday.

The peace program was the subject of discussion at the Cabinet meeting today. The majority of the Cabinet members expressed the opinion that the Versailles treaty must be rejected as impracticable, particularly from the viewpoint of the American people. It is regarded as the mandate of the American people to disintegrate the United States from the affairs of Europe.

Secretary of State Hughes is reported to have expressed views opposed to adoption of the Knox resolution and to have indicated that if the President decided otherwise, he would accept the decision in conformity with the understanding on which he entered the Cabinet. This understanding was that, while he was to speak for the State Department at Mr. Harding's address in Florida, the President would shape the policies to be followed.

Senator Knox was in conference with President Harding for two hours again today, giving rise to belief that Mr. Harding was consulting him in the preparation of his message to Congress to be delivered Monday. Mr. Knox declined to discuss the matter, but it is known that there has been no alteration of his plan to introduce his peace resolution as soon as Congress reconvenes.

Upon his return to the Capitol, Senator Knox conferred with Representative Porter of Pennsylvania, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Porter felt certain that the President and Secretary Knox were working in complete harmony in the peace-making program and announced that he would introduce the Knox resolution in the House just as soon as it assembled next Monday. It was possible, he said, that some modifications would be made.

LONDON, April 5.—Prior to his departure from Steinamanger, former Emperor Charles expressed the conviction that he would return shortly and he was determined to do all in his power to bring about such a change of view in Europe as to make the peace possible, says the Steinhilber correspondent of the London Times.

He drew up the following declaration: "His Majesty leaves because of his conviction that the moment has not come for him to take over his right of governing. He cannot permit maintenance of his right to entail disturbances in the present state of peace. He leaves as the crowned King of Hungary."

REPEAL VACCINATION ACT.

Senate Takes Action Placing Control of Smallpox in Health Board.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SACRAMENTO, April 5.—Despite opposition and the absence of ten members, the Senate today passed, 23 to 7, Senator Crowley's bill to repeal the Compulsory Vaccination Act and to place control of smallpox under direction of the State Board of Health. Crowley and Osborne explained the measure, which now goes to the Assembly for approval. Present laws and eliminate objection to compulsory vaccination.

ing formulated by the President in the light of his study of the problem for several months and of the advice of his counselors in the Cabinet and in Congress.

REPEAL OF TREATY.
That part of the plan which pertains to the re-establishment of peace with the Central Powers is based upon a definite rejection of the Versailles Treaty and upon a declaration of peace in a resolution, similar to the Knox resolution, which is being drafted, according to present intentions, by Secretary Hughes. This resolution is intended to embody such changes in the Knox resolution as the President and Secretary Hughes deem necessary to conform to the Harding plan.

The Harding doctrine of American co-operation in the preservation of peace the President contemplates incorporating in the new resolution. It is said to resemble in essentials the declaration which Senator Knox drafted for inclusion in his resolution.

In the administration peace program, the President is understood to be convinced that there is no practical way of considering the Versailles covenant as a basis of the American peace program.

KNOX RESOLUTION.
As to the Knox resolution it was stated that the President voted for it while the Senate, that he spoke favorably for it in his speech of acceptance and that he now finds no reason to retract his position. The President's attitude on that score, this confirmed information from other quarters that the Knox resolution is the basis of the plan the President is formulating.

The President in discussing the matter with his advisers has concluded that he is not committed to a definite program in connection with the internal situation, that it is necessary to establish the program piecemeal instead of all at once.

Mr. Harding has declined to state his views on the matter, but in advance of his address to Congress next week. He has stated that the address would deal not only with the peace program but with international questions. The President has indicated that he likes the character of addressing Congress in person, which was established by President Wilson, having been impressed with a Senator with the pertinence of such a message in writing. Americans Release was Unconditional, Asserts Secretary.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Reports from Germany that the German government had conditioned the release from prison of American Army Sergeants Zimmer and Neaf on the promise that Grover Cleveland Bergdahl, American draft dodger, would be no further molested, were emphatically denied here today. Secretary of War Weeks said such a report was nonsense. "There were no conditions whatever to the release of these men," he said. "I know, because I have seen copies of all the correspondence with relation to their release, and there is nothing of the sort mentioned. Besides, this government would not be a party to any such condition."

PICKS GUATEMALA AS HIS SLACKER ASYLUM.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

VERA CRUZ, April 5.—Lynn A. E. Gale, an American radical, who arrived here yesterday following the issuance of orders for his expulsion from Mexico, was put on a train bound for Guatemala this morning. Gale, who was accompanied to this city from the capital by his wife and three secret service detectives, begged the Mexican authorities not to send him to the United States, where he believed he would be placed under arrest.

Assertions that influential friends were making an effort to secure his freedom were made yesterday by Gale when he was interviewed by the Associated Press. Gale was rather evasive and insisted his name was not Gale, but "Wurtenberfeld."

He declared he was a German and that his wife, whose given name is Wilhelmina, was also of that nationality.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Lynn A. E. Gale's choice of Guatemala as his asylum after deportation from Mexico was made yesterday by the United States for trial as a draft evader practically impossible, in the opinion of government officials. This was adopted as a hot discussion, in which some Senators contended it would place no burden on the amount of money which might be appropriated.

ATTEND BALL GAME.
One-fourth of the Senate membership joined with most of the Assemblymen today, for the opening game of the Pacific Coast League here today.

Those Senators who remained on duty were in a playful mood. Gates and Rominger suggested adjournment until tomorrow, when a circus will be in town. McDonald, presiding in the absence of the Speaker, was asked to sign a note by a page just before adjournment.

"Senator Duncan, did you send me a note?" McDonald demanded. "It says: 'McDonald you are a big stiff,' and it is signed with your name." "A dunce," he added, adding words of praise for the temporary presiding officer.

After the adjournment the general laughter that ended the incident.

ASSEMBLY ALSO BITTER.
The national game proved too potent an attraction for the Assemblymen today, and they quit work at noon in order that they might see Gov. Stephens pitch the first ball Thursday. All that followed thereafter. As a result, there were no afternoon committee meetings, and the morning calendar carried little of importance.

The following bills were passed and sent to the Senate at the morning session:
By Mather—Permitting officers at school elections the same compensation paid officers at the last preceding general election.
By Brooks—Permitting an election board of one judge, one inspector, and two clerks, at special municipal elections where four or less propositions are submitted to voters.
By Coombs—A San Mateo county government bill.
By Ream—A Siskiyou county government bill.

By Lewis—A bill authorizing the payment of not more than $10 annually by counties as expense for each of several specified officers to enable the latter to attend conventions of such officers.

By Fellon—A joint resolution for a memorial to Congress commending the present naval building program.
By Morrison—Making Labor Day a school holiday.
By Brooks—Permitting poor persons to bring certain suits in court at public expense by proving poverty.

A concurrent resolution by Rosenshine relating to the selection of two illustrious deceased persons whose statues shall be placed in the capitol building was referred to the committee on rules. A similar resolution has already passed the Senate.

SOVIETS TO TURN PLANTS BACK TO OLD OWNERS.

Payment to Workers in Foreign Gold Likely to Cause Overthrow of Present Regime, Paris Believes.

(BY HENRY WALES.)
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
PARIS, April 5.—The soviets have announced that they will denationalize the factories and mines in the Moscow region which are owned by foreign interests. The French Foreign Office learned of the decision to restore the foreign concessions through a private service in Stockholm.
This is considered here as a tacit admission that the soviets are not able to restore economic stability in Russia and is regarded by the French as the first positive indication that the overthrow of the Bolsheviks is imminent.
The British interests will be the first to be permitted to take over their former concessions and then the Germans. French capital controls two-thirds of Russian industry, chiefly in the textile trades. The British interests are mainly limited to the oil fields and mines.
The soviets have not yet announced the method to be taken in denationalization of foreign-owned industries as the employees in the factories and mines control the plants. It is expected that British and German concerns will be permitted to pay the workers in English and German gold money which, through the depreciated ruble, will enable the employees to draw fabulous wages.
The introduction of foreign money into Russia against the worthless paper is expected to start an avalanche against Bolshevism.
The British are expected immediately to begin an intensive exploitation of the Ural platinum mines, which have produced practically nothing since 1917, and the Germans are anxious to begin leather trading.
TO IMPORT GERMANS.
It is said that the soviets are preparing to import several thousand German skilled laborers to reorganize the plant. Puffoff works at Petrograd, which is Russia's biggest national plant.
During the war the Puffoff works were transformed into munitions factories, but machinery for railway rolling stock remains available.
The date for the denationalization of French and American-owned factories is not known yet.
Dispatches from Rome say soviet Russia desires to buy immediately from the United States to the extent of many millions of dollars, paying with gold, precious stones and platinum. The merchandise chiefly desired is machinery, including locomotives, agricultural implements, electrical appliances, dynamo and so on.
WOULD GRANT MONOPOLIES.
The soviet government is willing to grant electric lighting monopolies to American companies wishing to put up power plants in cities. It will also make concessions of mines and forests. Such is the statement given by M. Vorovsky, Russian commercial delegate to Italy.
"We should prefer to give concessions in Siberia because the country there is scantily populated," said M. Vorovsky, "but Northern Russia is full of timber, which can be exported all the year round from Murmansk."
"Soviet Russia today has little to export to the United States, so commerce must be limited, but she can offer precious metals, chiefly platinum, and oil from the Caucasus. Baku is now in the hands of the Bolsheviks. We are repairing the pipe line from Baku to Batoum and will soon be able to furnish oil to the United States on a considerable scale."

KITCHIN LEADS FIGHT AGAINST TARIFF BILL.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, April 5.—Representative Kitchen of North Carolina, former chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, who took no part in the affairs of the House in the last session on account of illness, will signalize his return to the position of ranking minority member of the committee by leading a fight against the Agricultural Emergency Tariff Bill.
Representative Kitchen is now at work on a minority report to be presented from committee in opposition to the bill. This report may be made public during the present week in advance of the opening of the session.
At one time, during the last session Representative Kitchen intended to withdraw entirely from the Ways and Means Committee, believing that his strength might not be sufficient to take an active hand in the fight on tariff and tax legislation as well as act as minority leader. He finally decided to remain on the committee upon the insistence of Democratic friends, who did not wish Representative Garner of Texas to become the ranking minority member of the committee.
The withdrawal of Representative Kitchen and the defeat for re-election of Representative Henry Rainey of Illinois and Representative Hull of Tennessee would have placed Representative Kitchen at the head of the list. The objection to Representative Garner lay in the fact that Mr. Garner was one of the southern Democrats who supported the emergency agricultural bill in the last session. Democrats who have consistently opposed Republican tariff measures were unwilling to have their party forced led by an advocate of protection.

LOSS OF BOOK TO COST COUNTY $2000.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
FRESNO, April 5.—Because of the loss of a book containing the assessments on five school districts last Saturday, Fresno county will be forced to pay about $2000 and the work of the county assessor's office will be tripled. It was announced yesterday. This book was in the car of Deputy Assessor A. D. Orr, which was stolen from a parking place near the Courthouse.
County Assessor G. P. Cummings has requested anyone finding the book to return it by mail, express or in person to his office. It is probable the book has been thrown away from the car along some highway.
The book contains almost 3000 pages giving the name of real estate holders, their address and the assessment on their property. The work expended in this book occupied many months.

MICHIGAN TO RUSH THROUGH BONUS BONDS.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
LANSING (Mich.) April 5.—Providing the bill meets the approval of Gov. Grosbeck, an enabling act will be introduced in the House at once to provide the legal machinery for carrying out the sale of the $20,000,000 bonds and distributing the bonuses to World War veterans. The bill was drawn up Monday by A. D. Pepper, Assistant Attorney-General, and Representative Vincent Dacey of Detroit.
As the bill now stands it will allow veterans to accept bonds in lieu of the cash bonus if they desire. Veterans will be paid $15 a month for every month of service from April 6, 1917, to August, 1919.

What the Los Angeles Critics Said About

Alfred Cortot

Distinguished French Pianist and the DUO-ART
Reproducing Piano

Heard in joint concert at the Philharmonic Auditorium, last Friday evening.

Cortot Performs With Duo-Art

ONCE more the remarkable reproduction of the artist by highly specialized mechanism was demonstrated at the Philharmonic Auditorium last night when the Steinway Duo-Art piano shared in honors with Alfred Cortot, noted French pianist, before an audience which crowded the house.
Mr. Cortot has been heard here on previous occasions, and his technique and poetic interpretation are warmly cherished in the memories of his hearers. It was therefore of especial interest last night to realize with what exquisite quality of tone coloring, delicacy of shading and dynamics and identity of tempo, the Duo-Art catches and holds in permanent form the best of his work.
Novelty was introduced into the program by several duet numbers between the pianist and his own reproduction upon a second instrument. This was notable in the Chopin Polonaise, where the artist in person performs the orchestral part. A similar number as accompaniment to his reproduction of the performance of a Beethoven Op. 33 for two pianos, and the audience found variety and great musical charm in the numbers.
Cortot was heard in entire solo in the Schubert "Litanies," two Chopin Etudes, Debussy's "La Cathedrale engloutie" and "Minstrelle," Albeniz's "Sevillana" and "Saint-Saens' Bourree for left hand alone. He alternated with the Duo-Art in the Liszt Hungarian Rhapsody No. 11 and Saint-Saens' Etude en Forme de Valse Op. 32, giving the audience every opportunity to compare the reproduction with the original interpretation of the artist.
As a matter of entertainment, the concert was well worth while, but in its larger ideals it displays to musicians and the layman as well the vast opportunity which science has brought to musical genius in making possible the perpetuation of individual art and study of every artist of note in the musical world in the numbers.
Students in generations to come can compare the various renditions of the Chopin Etudes, Debussy's "La Cathedrale engloutie" and "Minstrelle," Albeniz's "Sevillana" and "Saint-Saens' Bourree for left hand alone. He alternated with the Duo-Art in the Liszt Hungarian Rhapsody No. 11 and Saint-Saens' Etude en Forme de Valse Op. 32, giving the audience every opportunity to compare the reproduction with the original interpretation of the artist.
The program ended with "Variations on a Theme by Beethoven" (Saint-Saens) for two pianos.

CHINAMAN KIDNAPED AND LATER MURDERED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
VACAVILLE, April 5.—Lee Yee, believed to be a member of the Hop Sing tong, was kidnaped from his ranch seven miles north of here this morning by three Chinese and a white man, in an automobile, who riddled him with bullets and threw his body beside a railroad switch a quarter of a mile from here.
According to Constable J. Stafield, the men approached Lee Yen in a field and after a few words the white man hit him on the head with a blunt instrument. He was knocked unconscious and flung into the car. Several other Chinamen were working in the field at the time.
Sheriff E. B. Manford of Butte county, who was on his way to Sacramento, passed near Lincoln a white man driving an automobile containing three Chinese. The car fits the description given by the men in the field. No other clue has been found.

ESCAPE-PROOF JAILS FAIL TO HOLD YOUTH.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
EUREKA, April 5.—A record of having swum his way out of two escape-proof jails within a week has been set up here by William Clark, 18 years old, a suspected burglar. Last night he escaped from the reinforcement concrete and steel County Jail through the escape of a saw. A few days before he used the same method in freeing himself from the City Jail, which was made of brick and steel.
An office was robbed a short time after Clark escaped last night.

CANTILEVER SHOES

Men and Women
Importance of Being Comfortable
Physical discomfort is contrary to Nature's plan, and if the cause is not removed, the ultimate result is anything from a local ailment to a physical deformity.
These are a particular source of discomfort because the average human foot is larger than any other part of the body. We all walk and are tired of it. Some walk in tight, uncomfortable shoes. Some chafe along like a man with a sore back. Others not working because the efficient human foot is hindered and restricted by ill-fitting shoes. Some walk along bravely, with enjoyment and ease. These are the ones who wear good shoes like Cantilever shoes. They are the ones who have their feet shaped to the natural foot, with lines shaped to the natural foot, with heels with the foot arch.
Come investigate expert fitting.

PICKING FLAWS IN GOVERNMENT
Bryce Looks with Cynical Eye on Democracy.
Says State Judiciaries Are Inferior to Bar.
Party Organizations Merely Selfish Oligarchies.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
CHICAGO, April 5.—"Modern democracies," a two-volume study of contemporary republican forms of government by Viscount James Bryce, former British Ambassador to the United States, is published today by an American company.
Those who remember Lord Bryce's sympathetic study, "The American Commonwealth," and be surprised to find that the former British plebiscitary at Washington is becoming cynical toward democratic ideals in practice.
Where once he viewed Congress with an amused tolerance, he now looks upon the whole operation of political theory in America with a dissatisfied eye.
He sums up the defects in the working of popular government in America as:
(1.) State legislatures do not enjoy the confidence of the people, as is shown by the restrictions imposed upon them and by the transfer in many States of some of their powers to the citizens acting directly. Congress maintains a higher level, on one side, than the State legislatures, in a nation proud of its institutions as a whole.
(2.) The civil service (with the exception of the scientific branches of the national government) is not yet equal to the tasks which the extension of the functions of government is imposing upon it.
(3.) The State judiciary is, in the large majority of the States, inferior in quality to the better part of Europe, and that practices before it, and has in some few States ceased to be respected.
(4.) The administration of criminal justice is slow, uncertain and in many States so defective that offenders constantly escape punishment.
(5.) The laws are in some States so imperfectly enforced that the security for personal rights and to a less extent for property rights also is insecure.
(6.) The government of cities, and especially of the largest cities, has been incompetent, wasteful and corrupt.
(7.) Party organizations, democratic in theory and in their outward form, have become selfish oligarchies worked by professional politicians.
(8.) The tone of public life and the sense that public service is an honorable public trust, though now rising are not yet what they should be in so great a nation.
(9.) The power of wealth, and particularly of great incorporated companies, to influence both legislators and the choice of persons to sit in legislatures and on the judicial bench, has been formidable.
(10.) Though there are and always have been in public life some men of brilliant gifts, the number of such persons is less than might be expected in a country where talent abounds and the national issues before the nation are profoundly important.
Bryce asks:
"To what cause shall we attribute each of these failures of democratic practice to attain the standard required by democratic theory?"
And answers:
POOR LEGISLATORS.
"(1.) The want of respect for legislatures is due to the quality of the men who fill them, few of whom are superior in knowledge and intelligence to the average of their fellow-citizens and many of whom are (in some States) below that average in point of character."
"(2.) The civil service has been recruited without regard to competence, and the spoils system not only disregarded fitness but taught the official that his party organization has the first claim on his loyalty."
"(3.) The mediocrity of most State judges and the indifference of a few are the natural result of popular elections, short terms of office and low salaries which tend to reduce the present Federal tax burden on business enterprises by the tax of 1 per cent on the privilege of holding land valued after deducting all improvements, at more than $10,000. It is claimed that the price would raise annually $1,000,000,000.
According to Walter Leggett, in charge of the institution capitalized at $100,000,000. It will be international banking machinery beginning where the present commercial banks leave off. It will not duplicate or compete with any existing machinery, but will more completely cover the needs of the world, which is necessary to our well being."
GOVERNMENT TO REPAIR GREAT GERMAN LINERS.
GEORGE WASHINGTON AND AMERICA TO GO IN SHIP-PIING BOARD SERVICE.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
WASHINGTON, April 5.—Negotiations are under way between the United States Mail Steamship Company and the Shipping Board, which expense of reconditioning the former German liners George Washington and America, at a cost of about $1,000,000, will be borne by the government. It is expected the ships will be ready for service by July 1.
Thirteen former German vessels were chartered to the company for operation on former German trade routes, but the company later complained that they were unable to pay for the reconditioning.
FIRST WOMAN MAYOR IN MISSOURI ELECTED.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
ST. JAMES (Mo.) April 5.—Mrs. Maye Outley was elected Mayor of St. James today by a majority of 100 votes over S. Hall, according to unofficial tabulation. Tonight, which gave Mrs. Outley 522 and Hall 544. Both ran on a non-partisan ticket.
Mrs. Outley is the first woman in the State to hold the Mayoralty office.

RAISINS HURT BY FROST.
Twenty Per Cent of the 1921 Crop in San Joaquin Valley Destroyed.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
FRESNO, April 5.—Twenty per cent of the 1921 raisin crop, or about $6,000,000, was destroyed in the frost that hit the entire section of the San Joaquin Valley yesterday and today, according to a statement issued last night by Wylie M. Gilfen, president of the California Associated Raisin Company.
Thompson seedless and Malaga grapes suffered the most, according to Gilfen, although some muscats were damaged.
The frost covered a belt about twelve miles wide and about thirty miles long, in the very heart of the raisin-growing section.
Gilfen estimates that the money loss to growers will be in the neighborhood of $10,000,000.
NO EXTENSIVE LOSS.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
SACRAMENTO, April 5.—Although there were scattered unofficial reports of damage to fruit in Northern California as a result of the cold spell of the last two days, there was little likelihood of any extensive loss, local weather forecasters here said today.
Taylor, believed that the strong north wind was so dry as to preclude any possibility of frost except possibly in the foothills of the Sierras on the edges of the Sacramento Valley.
NOTE HIGHER TEMPERATURE.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
FRESNO, April 5.—Until an actual survey of the regions are made it will be impossible to determine the extent of damage by frost last night, because the air was so dry there was actually no showing of a white frost this morning, said W. W. Bennett, local weather forecaster.
"If any damage was done, it probably would not show up also," he said.
The minimum temperature last night was 30 deg., which was two degrees higher than yesterday.
While no reports had been received from the immediate neighborhood this morning, the reports from Merced, Lindsay and Porterville showed a higher temperature than elsewhere.
BUDDING CROPS SAVED.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—Although heavy frosts were reported today throughout the Pacific Coast region, no great damage to fruit and other crops was done, the United States Weather Bureau reported. The weather turned in time to save the budding crops.
Clear and warmer weather is the forecast for the Coast region for tonight and tomorrow.
BLIZZARD HIT IDAHO FALLS.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
IDAHO FALLS (Idaho) April 5.—With a high wind raging, the worst blizzard yet hit here here late yesterday afternoon and has continued all night with unabated fury, piling the snow on the roofs with over two feet of snow. This storm follows on the mildest and warmest spring on record.
EUREKA.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
A heavy northwesterly wind hit Eureka today, blowing the tops off all shipping. Several vessels were barreled while five are inside waiting to sail.
LONG-TIME CREDITS FOR EUROPE URGED.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
CHICAGO, April 5.—William C. Redfield, former Secretary of Commerce, arrived in Chicago today, bearing what he believes is a property plan for the world to have the secret of speedily in business and bringing about an era of profitable trade.
"Long-time credits to Europe, that's the answer," said Redfield, who will expound his ideas to bankers and business men here. "I'm not here advocating long-time credits," he explained. "I'm here declaring that they are an absolute necessity. It is no more than stating a plain fact. Credits must be extended to give us an outlet and to business. They will start our surplus products moving and business will begin picking up immediately. Cotton bales that we last week that unless this plan goes through, the South will be ruined. That is the state of one industry in the United States."
"Europe has been sick for a long time. Tremendous debts have been incurred, and although her people are willing to work and buy our goods and our tools, they have not the money to do so. They have lost their earning capacity."
"The Foreign Trade Financing Corporation, an institution capitalized at $100,000,000. It will be international banking machinery beginning where the present commercial banks leave off. It will not duplicate or compete with any existing machinery, but will more completely cover the needs of the world, which is necessary to our well being."
COMMISSIONS FILE FINDING WITH CONFERENCE NOW ON IN GENEVA.
[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]
GENEVA, April 5.—Various Red Cross commissions presented reports today to the International Red Cross conference. The most important was that relating to the situation of war. These additions to the Hague convention were proposed in the report of this commission and adopted. Absolute prohibition of the use of gas in warfare.
Limitation of aerial war to military objects in the case of civilians and avoid useless destruction.
Strict application of Article XXVI of the rules of land war, according to the second Hague conference.
Strict application is also recommended of Article VI of the convention relating to naval bombardments, and prohibiting bombardment of all undefended places.
NEW TARIFF RICK RECEIVED.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

FRUIT GROWERS PLAN

SELLING ASSOCIATION.

FIRST ATTEMPT TO MARKET ON

CO-OPERATIVE BASIS IS BEING MADE.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, April 5.—Growers

from every fruit belt in the United States made their first attempt to market in Chicago to solve their marketing problems. More than 200 met at the Congress Hotel to discuss the practicability of a national fruit marketing plan. After the fashion of the grain and live stock committees, the fruit growers will appoint a committee of twenty-one to draft a plan by which all organizations may market their fruits through one or more national sales agencies.

Regional organizations will be the foundation for their system. Strong co-operative organizations are already in existence in California, the Pacific Northwest, the Ozark region,

Michigan and Florida.

The need of a producer-owned and controlled marketing system arises from the general fall in price paid to the man who grows the fruit.

In a California orchard, under an orange tree, a grower has this sign:

"Too cheap to steal; help yourself."

and oranges are selling for 8 cents each in Chicago, one of the depressed said.

"Marketing is one of the largest problems confronting fruit growers," said Samuel Adams, editor of the American Fruit Grower. "Never has there been a movement of national scope looking toward the solution of this difficult problem, but the time is now ripe."

Gray Silver, Washington representative of the Federal farm bureau, told the delegates it would take a carload of apples to buy a suit of clothes and an overcoat in Washington.

"A tailor asked $200 for the suit and overcoat and in those two articles there were twenty pounds of wool, which the grower could sell for only 20 cents a pound," he said.

MERGER PROPOSAL.

NEW YORK CENTRAL WOULD

PURCHASE CHICAGO TER-

MINAL LINES.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, April 5.—Eight roads are fighting the proposed purchase by the New York Central of the Chicago Junction Railway Company,

the Chicago River and Indiana Railway and the Indiana Harbor Belt

Railway, which operates the Union

Stock Yard terminal.

The New York Central, through the merger of these roads, plans the unification of related lines to produce economy and efficiency in

Naval Officers Say That They Are of Little

Value; Superior to Germany's.

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

GEANTAKMO (Cuba) April 5.—"What do our submarines amount to?" was asked officers of this fleet, who should know. "Pretty good," they said, listlessly; "Just pretty good." Maybe they are wrong. But there is a conviction in the minds of some of these officers that there is a prejudice against submarines on the part of the General Board at Washington.

Or put it this way: that the officers of the General Board prefer battleships to submarines and that by the time they have succeeded in getting enough money from Congress to build all the battleships they want there will be none left to build an efficient fleet of submarines. Maybe these are the grouchy complaints of submarine enthusiasts.

At any rate these statements as to our present-day submarines have been made.

That our pre-Jutland submarines are of little value. They might be good enough for coast and harbor defense, but they are not as reliable as they should be.

That our pre-Jutland submarines

are not as good as the German submarines were at the end of the war.

This letter has surprising affirmation. The General Board has been examining the very latest types of German submarines. Yet if these complaints are right the General

Board has not been able to build submarine as good as these foreign models.

"They are fairly good," say the officers.

"Marketing is one of the largest problems confronting fruit growers," said Samuel Adams, editor of the American Fruit Grower. "Never

has there been a movement of national scope looking toward the solution of this difficult problem, but

the time is now ripe."

RARE LOBSTER RECIPES GIVEN.

Greenwich Village Secrets Are Told for Epicures.

New Way of Preparing Duck a la Mode Revealed.

California Orange Honey in Toothsome Cakes.

BY CHEF A. L. WYMAN.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Some one said that there were only three towns in the United States where an epicurean could secure any dish for which he asked. New York City was placed first, New Orleans second and San Francisco last. New York has a cafe for every nationality on earth, a few of which we never heard of. In my hunt for new and practical dishes to give to readers of The Times I went at midnight to Greenwich Village and the most unusual cafe that we found was conducted by a woman from Maine who makes a specialty of lobster which she serves in fifty different ways. Before the coals of a bright open fire she serves lobsters that taste different from those to be found in the uptown cafes and for half the price. Her lobster special served in a chafin dish was better than any lobster Newburg that I have ever had since we left Los Angeles.

For this dish cut in dice the meat of two medium-sized boiled lobsters and place in a sauce pan with four tablespoons of butter, half a cup of peeled and diced mushrooms, and four sliced artichoke bottoms, season with salt, pepper and mace; add one teaspoon of lemon juice and four tablespoons of orange juice, shake the pan and cook until reduced one half. Beat the yolks of three eggs with one cup of cream and add; cook until thick; do not allow to boil after adding egg yolks. Her lobster salad was simple, but delicious. This was made by covering the bottom of a salad bowl with shredded crisp lettuce and chervil; over this was spread shredded cooked lobster, sprinkled over lightly with a French dressing made with lemon juice. This was covered with a layer of white mayonnaise, decorated with hard boiled eggs, quarters, slices of anchovy and capers.

The best cafes that I have found are those that cater to men in the wholesale district, here one can find out-of-the-ordinary German and Jewish cookery that appeals to the overworked business man. Duck a la mode in jelly is a nice cold luncheon dish and will keep for several days in a cold place. This can be prepared in small individual molds and served as the principal dish at a supper picnic.

DUCK A LA MODE.—Cut up a calf's foot and place in a saucepan with four cups of cold water, one teaspoon of salt and a small bay leaf, bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer for one hour, or until liquor has been reduced one half. Cut up a four to five-pound domestic duckling and fry until well browned; wipe off the grease and place in another pan with the calf's foot and the broth, ten small carrots, one small bunch of parsley and ten small onions that have been browned in part of the POLICE TACTICS FOR PROTECTION.

Methods Suggested by Chief Pendegast to be Deputed in Next Rotogravure.

Next Sunday The Times Rotogravure section will graphically depict the most highly approved methods by which civilians, particularly women, may protect themselves in case of attack by thugs. These pictures were made under the direction of Chief of Police Pendegast and he strongly urges that they be studied and the methods suggested applied in case of need.

 fat from the duckling, one teaspoon of lemon juice, five tablespoons of orange juice, salt and pepper to taste; cover and cook slowly for one hour. Cool for two hours and remove the grease. Place the vegetables in individual molds with the duckling, which has been skinned, boned and cut in small pieces. Strain over the stock and place in the ice box to harden.

Celery root salad as served at a Hudson-street cafe—Pare and wash celery root; the size of medium potatoes and put on to boil in salted water. When cold remove from the water and chill. Cover the bottom of a salad bowl with crisp lettuce leaves. Cover the lettuce with boiled raisins, cover the raisins with the celery root cut in slices an eighth of an inch thick. Pour over all a good French dressing.

Another good salad is made with equal parts of boiled chestnuts, celery shredded, diced apples and orange cubes served on a bed of Romaine lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

CHICKEN SALAD.

One of the large caterers here makes a very fine chicken salad. He cooks his chickens so that dark meat will be nearly as white as the breast. Place a large chicken in boiling water with a bay leaf and one onion in which has been pressed six cloves; bring to a boil and let boil rapidly for five minutes. Reduce the heat and cook until the chicken is tender. Let cool in the broth. When the chicken is cold remove bones, fat and skin and cut in half-inch cubes. To each two cups of prepared chicken sprinkle over one tablespoon of lemon juice and set on the ice to chill. When ready to serve mix two-thirds chicken with one-third white celery cut in the same size pieces with a dressing made by rubbing fine the yolks of two hard-boiled eggs with one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon French mustard, two teaspoons sugar, and a drop at a time one tablespoon of olive oil; when smooth and light add the stiffly beaten white of one egg and four tablespoons of lemon juice a little at a time. Place salad in a lettuce-lined bowl and garnish with hard-boiled egg slices and ripe olives.

WILL REPORT ON RAILWAY.

Following a second conference of manufacturers and capitalists at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday on the San Juan Basin railway project, the joint delegation, representing this city and Durango, Colo., decided to place the matter in the hands of two committees, the first to represent the proponents of the proposition and be headed by Reece Jewell, the second to represent the Chamber of Commerce and be headed by its president, Sylvester L. Weaver.

It is expected that within a few days Mr. Jewell's committee will submit its report to the chamber's committee in concrete form, and the latter will then be able to make a definite report to the directors of the chamber. It has been proposed that the people of San Juan Basin sell 50,000 acres of undeveloped land to a local syndicate for $50 an acre, taking in return $2,500,000 worth of stock in the proposed railway from Durango, N. M., to Farmington, N. M., which it is thought could be constructed for perhaps a trifle less than $4,000,000. The syndicate, it is expected, would form a development company and dispose of the block of land, paying $2,500,000 from the proceeds of land sales into the treasury of the organization that builds the road. Many phases of development are involved in the proposition, among them being intensive agriculture, coal mining, hydroelectric power development and irrigation projects.

When baked and while hot cut in pieces two inches wide and three inches long. Let stand a week before using.

New Vocational Head in Twelfth District Named.

Elmer L. Shirrell of Santa Barbara has been appointed district vocational officer in the Twelfth District. Education, succeeding Nicholas Ricciardi, according to an announcement made by U. W. Lankin, director of the board, at a conference of vocational officers in Salt Lake City yesterday.

Mr. Shirrell has been supervisor of the Los Angeles territory for the last five years. The twelfth district, which has been under the direction of Mr. Ricciardi for the last year and a half, comprises the States of California, Nevada and Arizona. Mr. Ricciardi will become the director of the California Polytechnic School at San Luis Obispo.

I. W. Kibby of Pomona, who has been one of the assistant officers of the district, has been appointed supervisor of the Los Angeles district by Mr. Lankin.

Both Mr. Shirrell and Mr. Kibby saw service in the World War. The latter is a disabled veteran.

INSTRUCTED IN SEWAGE FACT HUNT.

Experts to Study Disposal Problem of Los Angeles and Recommend System.

George W. Fuller of New York and Prof. George C. Whipple of Harvard University were instructed yesterday by Chairman Mulholland of the Health and Sanitation Committee of the City Council, acting on behalf of the Councilmen, to make a thorough study of the sewage disposal problem of the city. The experts were retained by the Council as a result of the overtaxing of the present outfall sewer, due to the tremendous growth in population of Los Angeles. President Workman of the City Council, who was present at yesterday's conference with the experts, said:

"Mr. Fuller and Prof. Whipple understand clearly that the Council's instructions to them are to secure all of the facts. They are not pledged to any solution, either the building of the proposed $12,500,000 outfall sewer to the sea or the construction of a sewage treatment plant or the combination of the two proposals. They are open-minded, and their first task will be to estimate the city's needs in sewer facilities for the next twenty-five years and after studying the present sewer system of the city, to recommend the most efficient methods of solving our problem."

It is expected that Mr. Fuller and Prof. Whipple will be in Los Angeles for several weeks making a first-hand survey of the sewage conditions, after which they will compile their data and make a report to the City Council. They are to be paid $7500 each for their services, in addition to their traveling expenses. Chief Engineer Mulholland of the water department, the third member of the board of experts, is working with the easterners.

Taffeta and Tricolette Frocks in Late Styles

—At the blossom time of the year
—When all nature rejoices in newness
—Then it is that more thought is given —To fresh becoming clothes.

—Among the style features are:

Circular skirts. Youthful basques. Straight line corsage, finished with a picoté ruffle. Cable stitching in contrasting color. The spring pendant for combining navy and gray. Eyelet embroidery showing an underlay of henna. Silk embroidery. The popularity of barred taffeta.

The way in which these Dresses—inexpensively priced though they are—can be adopted to different occasions is one of their chief charms. Many are Frocks which may be donned in the morning, worn to a musicale and luncheon and found equally suitable for afternoon functions or a shopping tour. That is the advantage of simplicity.

Then the choice of two materials offers a further advantage. The crisp, bouffant lines of taffeta appeal to many, while the softly clinging folds of tricolette are more to the taste of others.

PLAYTIME IN MEXICO.
 Mexico's new government has set aside seven big scenic beauty spots as national parks. There are numerous holidays in Mexico and in having playgrounds for the people peace and good government are promoted.

WAR TERRORS.
 In contributing its aid to the horrors of war the Chemical Service Department at Washington is said to have developed a poison so deadly that a couple of drops on the skin are almost immediately fatal. This stuff could be dropped from airplanes in connection with noxious gas bombing. If we keep on refining and chemicalizing war we will presently have it at that stage wherein no one will care to indulge in it.

AMONG THE EMPLOYERS.
 An Ohio man was fined $1000 for reporting the theft of a dozen cases of whisky from his cellar. The fine wasn't exactly for reporting the theft, but for admitting that he had the contraband stuff at the time of the burglary. It would seem that here was a case where the man would get his money back if he took the matter to a higher court. With so many bootleggers running wild it seems far-fetched to fine a man without even an empty bottle.

TALKING PICTURES.
 Now a Swedish scientist, who has been working on the problem for ten years, claims to have developed a real speaking film. He will have full opportunity to prove it. Thomas A. Edison and others have tried out the talking-picture idea extensively, but perfect synchronization has been impossible to obtain. Without this the talking pictures are practically useless. If the voice can be recorded in the making of the film and reproduced with exactitude in the same way it would be a wonderful thing for the world and the picture industry. Doubtless we shall reach this yet, even if the Swedish inventor has not fully attained the goal. It is a discovery which should come from America and not from Sweden.

KEEPING A HUSBAND.
 In a local divorce court a sad-faced husband complained because his gentle spouse became enraged on occasion and struck him. She hauled off and punched his back so mightily that it bled for nearly an hour. At another time she took him by the throat, stood him up against a wall and hit him so hard with her clenched fist that one eye was blackened for a month. Likewise, his life was cut so badly that it made him cry whenever he said his prayers. Under this form of treatment the husband-love weakened and at length a legal separation was sought.

When a woman forgets that she is a lady and begins to beat up her husband it is apt to lead to a parting of the ways. No man likes to think of his wife as a human tornado who behaves like Jack Johnson whenever she catches him alone. A woman who mangles her husband's dome whenever he falls into her hands cannot forever maintain his respect and love. Some day she will write out of her keeping and another matrimonial shipwreck will be reported. Kindness will go farther than cussedness in the care and keep of companions.

HOME AT LAST.
 Through the swirling mists of the cold March night, mile after mile of Ohio landscape melted away behind the wheels of the crashing train, while the last few sands trickled from the hour glass of another human life. Something more than masses of wood and steel and human doubts and aspirations was passing along the railroad with the flight of time.

The spirit of John Burroughs had returned to him who gave it.
 "How near home are we?"
 "We are the dearly cherished home at West Park, N. Y., of which the great naturalist was thinking or was he already visiting the House of Many Mansions when, with the tender question on his lips, he reached the journey's end at a destination not stamped upon the ticket by any human hand?"

One of America's truest, best-loved citizens had received his answer to the eternal question that ever fills a leading place in every heart. "How near home are we?"
 So, in the cold March night, on the rushing train, among the misty fields of Ohio John Burroughs found his own—as in life he had never doubted he would find it—"amid the eternal ways"—where you and I and our friends and neighbors are still standing while each year clips off another couplet from the ticket.

How the deepest scientific training can combine with the purest poetic fancy to produce a nature sweet and strong and logical and lovely; how the finest wellspring of poetic inspiration can be drawn from the full well of scientific research; how faith in nature, both human and divine, is the fairest blossom on the tree of useful knowledge; these are the illustrations and lessons we learn from the life work of the poet-naturalist whose creed was summed up in one beautiful stanza:
 "The stars come nightly to the sky,
 The tidal wave unto the sea,
 Nor time nor space nor deep nor high
 Can keep my own away from me."

THE LEMON PUZZLE.
 There is danger that a spirit of intolerance on the part of those who expect relief in a Republican tariff and who demand more than the eastern leaders of the party in Congress are willing to grant may result in setting up higher rates for California products at all. An industry divided against itself, as the lemon growers of California now appear to be, is certain to lose in wrangling all that unity of action might secure.

Lemons have been produced with profit, even in the best areas of the industry, only in two or three States, while they are consumed in forty-eight States. From this fact it results that cheap lemons have a greater appeal to a majority of the people of the country and to their representatives in Congress than the protection of an industry in which only a few are employed.

It is too much to presume that the Republican majority in Congress will permit the Representative from the Ninth California District to fix the lemon schedule in the new tariff. The lemon growers of Southern California must devote their energies to securing, not the protection that they deem essential to the industry, but that which it is possible for them to get. If they persist in the very old and very common mistake of making the best the enemy of the good they will get nothing but their labor for their pains.

If it were a question of self-determination, the lemon growers would experience little difficulty in securing adequate protection; but the problem of a citrus fruit tariff will be solved by those who have only a Platonic interest in the lemon growers. The citrus fruit growers can count upon the friendly interest of President Harding, but they must not presume too much upon it. His first consideration will be the greatest good of the greatest number, and he must give heed to the price of lemons to the householder and how much that price will be increased by the tariff.

The Times sees with regret that the Lemon Growers' Association of California and the California Fruit Growers Exchange are working at cross purposes. Our representatives in Congress are perturbed when they receive urgent messages from one body to concentrate on a certain schedule and from the other association a wire to insist upon another. These differences should be composed at home.

It is not difficult for the lemon growers to demonstrate that their product cannot now be marketed in the East at a price equal to the cost of production. They can prove further that the importers have entered into a combination to ruin the California industry and compel its abandonment. Lemons are being carried from Mediterranean ports to New York for one-quarter of the cost of rail transportation from California. The water rate to New York is no higher than that to London. It is plain that this low rate is maintained for the purpose of forcing the California growers to abandon their orchards. Once California ceases to be a competitor of Italy the rate will be doubled and lemons in the American market will sell higher than a price which would permit a profit to the California growers.

These facts will be taken into consideration when the Republican majority fixes the lemon tariff. But, if the schedule is placed too high, they are likely to decide that it would be better for the industry to perish than to force such an increase in the cost of lemons. The question is one of intricacies and subtleties; and we Californians must keep in mind that it is decided, not in California, but in Washington. More than one-third of the lower house of Congress is free-trade group is always to be reckoned with.

The Times would view with extreme regret the destruction of the lemon industry. We are thoroughly convinced that the price of lemons would not be permanently reduced by putting them on the free list; that, as soon as American competition was rendered impossible, the price would go far above the present figure. We hold the evidence is incontrovertible that the tariff must go up and the freight rates on citrus fruit must come down. But to obtain these things there must be an agreement as to the tariff representing the irreducible minimum both for lemons and the by-products before an attempt is made to secure its enactment by Congress.

OFFICIAL BOOTLEGGERS.
 A Los Angeles evangelist, who is now conducting revival meetings in Walla Walla, has come into collision with the Mayor through his daily repetition of charges that the city officials are in league with the bootleggers and other criminals. Evangelists mean well but if they should be expected to prove the truth of all their statements many of them would have to go out of business. They would have the same problem as faces the Hearst editors. To charge a Mayor with bootlegging is a bit venturesome. It seems to be mighty hard to prove that anybody is a bootlegger, although there is a just suspicion that bootleggers are about. It must be admitted that if the Mayor should engage in bootlegging he would have a wonderful trade. If Mayor Snyder were to start a private bar in the City Hall he could soon put all the other bootleggers out of business. Perhaps that is what is happening in Walla Walla. The Mayor and city officials are gradually acquiring a complete monopoly of the bootlegging industry. When they have absorbed it all they can get religion and quit and with their reformation all bootlegging will die. It might be worth trying. There are a lot of people who think the country would be better off if Uncle Sam himself did all the country's bootlegging. Of course, he is doing quite a lot of it now, but there is much that gets away from him.

AMONG TAXPAYERS.
 People who are still knocking the income tax should be thankful that they live in America rather than in Great Britain. Of course the schedules and bases are somewhat different, but in an average case where a head of a family pays less than 2 per cent here he would be paying around 13 per cent in England. Much of the grouching against the income tax in America is inspired by the cumbersome nature of the schedules employed for its collection. It might be simplified almost to the point of simplicity.

A PROFESSION OR A SIDE LINE?
 Dean W. R. Inge of London's St. Paul's Cathedral has created a sensation by declaring that, to a large extent, the day of the professional clergyman has passed—that he belonged to an era when few could read and learn, and that the exclusive attributes of the elect, but that now "the pastor is no better instructed than his congregation and the metaphor of the shepherd and his sheep" has become absurd.

The dean takes the attitude that the logical modern method in a "secular age" is to have several men and women in each community licensed to read services in church, administer the sacrament and do all that the clergy do now—people like the doctor, the school mistress, the parish nurse, etc., who would be unpaid—and set the church free from the anxieties and humiliations of begging for money.

In this way he thinks the rivalries of various denominations would vanish and the sects themselves spontaneously fuse, the public then feeling that religion "was their own business, not the business of those who make their living out of it."

As against this opinion we have that of William T. Ellis in the Saturday Evening Post, who regrets the spectacle of clergyman turned into paid "municipal reformers, prohibition enforcers, secretaries of societies, lyceum lecturers, insurance agents, etc." because "for him to accept any other position is a descent, however eminent."

Moreover, Mr. Ellis even upholds the poor pay of the sacred profession, which, he thinks, insures real devotion to the principle of the sacrificial ministry—since were it profitable, safe and easy it would attract ambitious young men to it as a career distinct from a sacred calling.

By which it will be seen that Mr. Ellis deplors in America what the dean is practically advocating for England, although the American experiments have not taken so completely a secular form as that advocated by the dean. When the American pastor does engage in a paying secular occupation he does not necessarily renounce his income as a pastor. The dean would wish to see the majority of religious officers purely honorary, reaping no profit whatever for their religious ministrations.

So that both arguments agree that religious instruction should not be profitable, that it should be essentially a sacred calling, a labor of love—differing only upon the source of the means of existence, since even the most spiritual among us must patronize grocers and bakers.

All of which is the antithesis of the argument put forth in a recent interchurch financial campaign in which it was urged that millions were essential to salvation, that only by paying adequate salaries and making the profession more glamorous could men be found to devote their effort to inculcating Christianity—its instruction and consolation.

There is, of course, one other system that might be employed to advantage, the recruiting of the clergy from among the financially independent, even as ambassadors to foreign countries have sometimes been selected; even as, until very recently, members of the British Parliament, strictly unpaid, were necessarily recruited from the ranks of England's civic duties are performed today, or our own numerous unpaid civic commissions—strictly from motives of patriotic altruism. This would give the clergyman's profession the necessary distinction insisted upon in the interchurch financial campaign, insure profitless devotion and provide a worthy channel for the activities of the fortunately independent. If it be argued that men cannot be both rich and spiritual the argument is equally against lavish pay for the clergy under the present system of selection. If freedom from financial considerations automatically diminishes spirituality, the higher the church potestate, the less should be his reward—yet bishops and deans are more generously rewarded than curates under our present plan, and popular pastors can invariably command higher-salaried "callings" than mediocre ones.

There isn't any good reason why men of financial independence, in that case, should not qualify for the ministry, or any reason to suppose there would be more difficulty in recruiting them than the present one, in which the poor rewards are pointed to as sufficient explanation why our brilliant young men are reluctantly passing up the ministry. The interchurch plea was that the rich should purchase the abilities of the poorer but more devoted for a high purpose. Yet how much better for the rich if they should themselves undertake the sacred duty and thus defeat the theory that prosperity, selfishness, indifference and damnation must ever go hand in hand.

We appear to have acquired the habit of believing that spirituality and at least comparative poverty are exclusive companions. Yet if we believe this, how does it coincide with our modern craving for wealth. Even the most Christian among us is not averse to secular prosperity, yet surely we are not thereby deliberately voluntarily alienating ourselves from Christianity. It could surely work for nothing but good, a vague in which our clergy from their ranks, with honor to themselves and benefit to the community.

If the grind of near-poverty is indeed so conducive to spirituality, the masses should be peculiarly spiritual and more so in hard times. Yet this is not the experience of the church. On the other hand, it is the fashionable churches in the prosperous neighborhoods that have the largest voluntary congregations.

BLIND MAN'S BUFF.
 Some times the activities of the blind are marvelous. In New York a blind man was recently arrested for burglary. He had entered a number of homes and acquired considerable booty—his operations being guided solely by his acute sense of touch. He seemed so flash light to aid him in his nefarious occupation and he seems to have worked alone. He was finally trapped by a footprint. He had a peculiar shaped shoe which was pointed by a cobbler who had made repairs. If he had been a partner in crime to look after some of the outside details the blind burglar might have continued his criminal career for some time.

RIPLING RHYMES.
ENCOURAGEMENT.
 The man who holds exalted place sees grief around, knee deep, and tears would trickle down his face if he had time to weep. Because he is a shining mark the knickers seek his trail; from early morn till after dark they roar and kick and wall. And so the great man's heart is sore and life seems gray and flat, and off at night he walks the floor and wonders where he's at. We choose a skipper for our ship, a skipper brave and strong, but he's had a chance to skip we show him where he's wrong. We say he's steering for the rocks before he's under way, and criticism, sneers and knocks confound him day by day. Encouragement the skipper courts, and all he gets is blame; and yet we think we're dead game sports, who play a decent game. The man who has a station high is much like Richard Roe; if he is praised he'll strive and try to make the business go. He's just as human as he was when he was pounding sand; his nature doesn't change, because he's foremost in the land. With honest pride, emotions high, he feels his bosom swell when people rear on end and cry, "Good boy! You're doing well!"

BLUE-EYED POMONA.
 BY ALMA WHITAKER.
 Now that the election is over and the fever slightly abating, it is evident that the attractive young city of Pomona has staged a wonderful publicity campaign. The country now knows that she is the most desirable of young persons who has a soupcon of naughtiness and yet remains quite nice. Her population is comfortably balanced, slightly over one-third adamant virtue, Sabbath, abstinence and a literal translation of the Fourth Commandment; another third for maintenance of the status quo and gay Sundays; and the other neutral, too indifferent to vote either way. Just a slight preponderance of the unco guid, as benefits a city with rather more than her quota of churches—just enough to keep any naughtily excesses under decorous control, but not enough to win her a reputation for impossible rectitude.

Of course, the cinema people are a bit chattering, they took the thing so hard. But they paid Pomona the compliment of regarding her as important enough to serve as a national criterion and gave her the endorsement of her life. Lots of people know she is a city now who previously never knew she existed. Moreover, they know she is a city with thirty-seven churches, an influential Civic Betterment League, yet is so prosperous a patron of the picture shows that the industry thought her well worth fighting for. And they know she's got a deal more about her scenic charms, her rich orange groves, her per capita automobile ownership, her affluent income tax assessments, her schools, her fair maidens and many youths—especially the latter, on whose behalf, we understand, the campaign was chiefly waged.

Altogether, Pomona seems to have come out of the battle with decorum. She has stood the blighting light of fierce publicity peculiarly well. The cinema people won't think so, of course, and one Harry Arthur of the League of Freedom, which stood for Sunday cinemas, is feeling the first effects of the fury of the scorned and saying some harsh things.

"If we can't open the picture houses on Sunday, Pomona shall not have any," is the gist of his angry ultimatum. But Harry should avoid the ultimatum. They are so exacting upon the ultimatum. After all, half a loaf is better than no bread, and lots of other industries besides the pictures have to get along on six days' earnings. And one can't say that the picture industry is not a very important industry. But an original underdog will manage to crowd their attendance into six days a week, while the average citizens certainly will if the picture is attractive enough. All the pictures have to do is to prove that even Pomona can't live without 'em—that a blue Sunday inevitably means a purple Monday, an American Beauty Tuesday, a corset Wednesday, a scarlet Thursday, a flaming Friday and a rainbow Saturday.

And in the meantime they must not forget that numerous pastors have declared themselves in favor of church cinemas. Even so august a clerical luminary as the Bishop of St. Albans in England—where they go in for any amount of Sabbath blue laws—has come out in favor of church entertainments, preferably gay and light-hearted, that religion may be pursued of some of its gloom. When the churches themselves admit the cinema the industry will, after all, have won its point.

As to this Sunday closing, it is really only new in the United States. England, Scotland, Australia and parts of Canada have far more rigorous Sabbath laws than any proposed here. Even the street cars don't run in church time on Sundays in Australia. No newspapers are published all seven days in England—they have to be separate and distinct publications on Sunday, with separate staffs. On Good Friday, bank holidays, etc., theaters are closed on Sundays throughout the British Empire (not the cinemas, but the speaking plays) and the actors and actresses are the child supporters of the custom. But the cinema has, after all, been one of those that thrived on the Sabbath so far, while many others have suffered the ban. They can afford to allow the experiment to be tried on one country town—and a good representative one, at that, and if it is a failure, so much the better for them. If, on the other hand, it really proves best for the community—why, the cinema industry surely has the best interests of the community at heart, even as our nearest politicians.

On the whole, it is nice of Pomona to submit herself to the experiment, to be the test case. Pomona can henceforth be offered as the horrible example or the shining criterion, as the case may be, and furnish the necessary concrete argument for or against. If, for instance, her young people fail to go to church, but persist in going astray, minus a Sunday cinema, Pomona's blue-eyed tears will be Exhibit A in the next controversy. If, on the other hand, church attendance is doubled and virtue shines triumphant in Pomona, the cinema people will be Exhibit B.

 The poker editor of the Thomas Cat requests each poker game in the City of Hot Springs to send in a dollar at every sitting, the money to be drawn from the pot at a time when it will not be missed; and to be sent in such a way as not to reveal the identity of the sender. This money is to be expended for charity. If every poker game in Hot Springs does this the poker editor will have to hire a corps of assistants to keep tab on the money.—[Arkansas Thomas Cat.]

TEJUNGA CASE.Government Serves Notice on Irrigation Companies.Orders Them to Show Cause for Holding Rights.Quick Action on City Water Plan Seen in Step.

General Land Commissioner Spry has taken definite action in regard to the proposed reservoir site desired by the city of Los Angeles to be located at the mouth of Tejunja Canyon, in the vicinity of Buena Vista.

Notice was received yesterday by Register Graves and Receiver Mitchell of the local Land Office, addressed to the Hamilton Irrigation Company and its successor, the Los Angeles Mountain Water Company, requiring the latter corporation within thirty days to show cause why it should not relinquish its rights to construct, maintain, operate and conduct, under a privilege granted some years ago by the Interior Department. The company will be required under this order to show proof of construction of the improvements involved in the application for an easement and right-of-way for certain reservoirs and canals in the Los Angeles land district.

It is stated that the Los Angeles Mountain Water Company has failed to develop the water rights as announced in its prospectus. When it was granted the right of way by the government, it is therefore asked to file a relinquishment of its rights, or show cause why the government should not proceed to take possession of the right of way.

TO SPEND MILLIONS.

It is asserted that the Los Angeles Mountain Water Company has possession of the right of way, and has done nothing since it came into such possession. The land is desired by the city to erect a dam to improve the waters of Tejunja Creek at the head of San Fernando Valley, and add to the viable supply of water for the city and irrigation purposes in the vicinity where it is proposed to erect an enterprise, at a cost of millions of dollars.

Preliminary purchase of land has been made by the city in the vicinity of the improvement, but the right of way originally granted to the Hamilton Irrigation Company and its successor, stands in the way of the prosecution of the work by the city.

The object of the order of the General Land Commissioner is to compel the land named the corporation to develop the water rights as announced in its prospectus, and to show cause why it should not relinquish its rights to construct, maintain, operate and conduct, according to the requirements of its agreement with the government.

The city has been making preliminary surveys of the area, purchased land to be covered by the waters of the reservoir, and purchased the hotel at Buena Vista to house the employees during the work of constructing the proposed dam.

The order of Commissioner Spry means that quick action is to be had on the proposition, and the city is not likely to be much longer kept in the dark.

D. J. GRAUMAN
PASSES AWAY.Veteran Theatrical Man Was Ill Only Two Days.Attended to Business Deals an Hour Before Death.Nationally Known Exhibitor in State Many Years.

D. J. Grauman, veteran theatrical man and motion-picture exhibitor of California and vice-president of the Grauman Theatre Enterprises, died late yesterday afternoon at his home, 4811 St. Francis Court, Hollywood. Death came after an illness of less than two days, presumably from heart failure brought about by a cold.

None of his relatives or friends was present. Less than an hour before his death, Mr. Grauman telephoned to his office and discussed business matters with his auditor, F. W. Hundley. Neither Sid Grauman nor any of his associates believed that Mr. Grauman's condition was serious. Sunday Mr. Grauman was at Grauman's Theatre at Third and Broadway, busy as usual. He was in his office, and at once telephoned for his physician and to the office, Mr. Hundley, Harold Orson, the house manager, and Misha Guterson, the musical director of Grauman's, left for Hollywood immediately. When they and the doctor arrived, Mr. Grauman was dead.

Sid Grauman was at the Leaky Studios when news of his father's death reached him. He at once ordered the Grauman theatres closed for the remaining part of the day and ordered that both playhouses remain closed today.

Funeral arrangements are being completed by Sid Grauman and Mrs. D. J. Grauman, the widow. A resolution expressing the condolences of the Los Angeles Theatre Association was passed at a special meeting of the executive committee last night.

Mr. Grauman was 55 years of age and was born in Louisville, Ky. With Sid Grauman he opened the old Unique Theatre in San Francisco eighteen years ago, later branching out with playhouses in San Jose, Stockton, Sacramento, Fresno and Oakland. Then came the Lyceum, Imperial and other San Francisco theatres, and finally the opening of Grauman's Million-dollar Theatre at Third street and Broadway, and later the Rialto in this city. Both Graumans were nationally known as exhibitors of motion pictures and theatrical managers.

Mrs. D. J. Grauman and Sid Grauman are the only near relatives. The body was taken to Bruce Brothers' mortuary establishment and will be taken to Indianapolis for burial.

PREPARED FOR BURIAL—by that side now. The Grauman family are said to have been in good luck.

Funeral will take place at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. D. J. Grauman, 4811 St. Francis Court, Hollywood.

He was fined $500 yesterday by Judge Willis for driving an automobile truck in the harbor district while intoxicated. He promised to carry out the court's order.

RUSH CITRUS FRUITS IN SHIPS.

En route from California to Atlantic ports, 40,000 boxes of oranges and lemons were aboard on the docks yesterday, according to T. H. Powell, lemon sales agent of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange. This compares with a total of 1700 boxes shipped three months ago, when the initial test shipment was made from Los Angeles Harbor to Philadelphia aboard the steamer Cramp.

The steamer Liberator, carrying the largest single shipment of citrus fruits, arrived in New York yesterday, twenty-three days from Los Angeles Harbor. More than 10,000 boxes of lemons were docked at a saving of 25 per cent on the f.o.b. value under present railroad freight rates.

"The fruit reached the markets in a much better shape than was expected," declared Mr. Powell. "The percentage of decay was no greater than has been experienced in recent rail shipments to Atlantic ports. The cargo sold at prevailing prices, but the saving of 25 cents on each of the 10,000 boxes meant a considerable item in the return."

The steamer Cramp, which made the first shipment to the East, sailed again on Sunday. On the first voyage the Cramp had aboard 1700 boxes of oranges and lemons and the present cargo comprises 14,000 boxes of lemons and 2000 boxes of oranges. Other steamers now en route, are: Arizonian, ten carloads; Steelworker, twelve carloads; Point Judith, two carloads, and West Toga, five carloads.

REFORMS URGED ON CLUB WOMEN

Canadian Speaker Says Side Streets Vice Breeders.

Asserts Pruning Knife Should be Used on Press.

Men Declared Unmindful of the Gentler Sex.

BY MYRA NYE.

It isn't enough for you to be a good woman. You must be a good citizen, proclaimed Harriet Dunn Prenter of Canada as she outlined a program for women of Los Angeles before the members of the Philanthropy and Civic Club yesterday in her talk on "Women's Power." She then amplified her suggestion by saying that women should not let their baby boys play with toy soldiers and guns; they should instead be given a toy plumber or a toy carpenter to play with, along with useful tools like hammers and saws. "Man is just as conceited and selfishly unkind to women today as he was in the beginning when he named the whole race mankind and never mentioned womankind," she continued. "But woman today can mould public opinion twice as easily as man, so the first who is left out," asserted the visitor, who, throughout her address, seemed to have it in for the men.

The speaker further admonished in connection with her program for the women that they should first clean up the City Hall, then stop boasting that Broadway is the best lighted street in the world and light up the side streets and alleys, which she affirmed with apparent first-hand knowledge are regular breeding places of vice.

PLACE TO VISIT.

Her next statement that club women must ever remember that home is a place for rest and refreshment; but cook stoves, and all stoves for that matter, should go in order to emancipate woman entirely; suggested that the refreshment then must come from the cellar and brought from the presiding officer the jesting comment that home for club women is a place occasionally to go to, a place to come from, but never to stay in.

But the lecturer continued seriously with her counsel because, as she said, women of a republic could do more than women of colonies such as her own place of abode, and her real of advice continued as earnestly as red tape. She admonished each one of them to tell their newspaper editors that they do not care anything about who loves who and who loves somebody else who isn't his wife and who runs off with him or the first who shocks one of the who and all of the who get mixed in court and nobody knows who's who.

PROUD OF BELIEFS.

"Don't be afraid to be called names," concluded the speaker. "If anyone calls me a socialist or a Bolshevik or an anarchist or a John Finner, I am proud of it if I believe in those principles." Some of the club members liked it and applauded.

If it is true, as Mrs. Prenter quoted Carlyle as saying, that principles are for potatoes, the club yesterday exemplified the theory that principles may be pie. A member brought a wonderful pumpkin pie that sold three times over, and the sum realized went toward the purchase of braces to straighten the legs of little Jose.

Jose was brought to the club by Mrs. Antonette White from the orthopedic clinic of the Children's Hospital, where, she said, 263 cases had been treated in March and 2558 during the year. Jose had been a victim of infantile paralysis, by surgical skill, muscular exercises and the kindness of women of the club, who helped to make this possible.

HAPPY MIRACLE.

Little Jose, standing upright on a table before his benefactors, was a happy miracle as compared to the poor child a year ago, who crawled on all fours with terribly misshapen limbs, growing each day more crooked from the paralysis. This was all in the day's work for this club, for that is its chief function, to help, to give and to save.

Announcement was made of the big theater party to be given in honor of Frederick Ward, who takes the role of Father Serra at the "Mission Play," and John S. McGroarty, author, to be given Saturday at the Mission Theater in San Gabriel. Nearly 200 members have purchased tickets for the party.

Big Sisters' League.

Tomorrow marks the last payment of the debt of the Big Sisters' League on the training home on Twelfth street, and the event will be celebrated by a jollification to which all friends of the home are invited at 2 p. m. in the home. Marian Tracy Whiting will entertain with monologues and piano songs. Rev. William Martin and Mrs. Harry Culver will speak.

Catholic Women's Club.

Madam Anna Ruena Sprout, contralto, with Mrs. Allene Chaudet at the piano, will give the program for the Catholic Women's Club meeting today in Columbus Auditorium at 2:30 o'clock p. m. Mrs. Sprout will conclude with an informal talk on Bohemia and Bohemian music, illustrated by three folk-songs of her country and followed by the group: "The Silence of the Night (Schumann)," "The Little Silver Ring" (Chaminade), "The Call of the Trail (Fay Foster), and "Spring Singing" (MacFadden).

Ladies of the G.A.R.

The new circle 66, Ladies' Auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet tomorrow at 2 o'clock p. m. at Patriotic Hall for election and installation of officers. Any one eligible to join may present her credentials at this meeting.

TO OPEN ART EXHIBIT.

California Products Will Be Shown Here Friday and Saturday.

A State art conference under the auspices of the State Board of Education will be held Friday and Saturday of this week when local concerns and artists will place on exhibition at the University of California, southern branch, art ware made in this State.

According to the announcement, art wares of quality equal to that of any other part of the world are produced in this State. Students at the university have been conducting experiments along these lines in reproducing art work of other parts of the globe and have been very successful, it is said.

Experienced Mothers know the wisdom of assisting nature before Baby's coming

It is natural to think of the expectant mother's influence upon the unborn babe. Her food, her habits, her hygiene, and even the condition of her mind, all have a part in determining the well-being or ill-being of her infant before birth.

No woman awaiting the joys of coming motherhood should allow the days to pass without giving nature a helping hand—because the conditions of pending motherhood, existing as they do, over a protracted period of months, create almost a new state of being for a woman.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oil, grease and substitutes. They act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good.

WORKMAN TELLS OF CREDIT DUE.

Council, Not Snyder, Worked for Economy, He Says.

Declares Hearst Papers do Not Tell the Truth.

Will Open Headquarters in Mayoralty Fight Soon.

BY THE WATCHMAN.

President Boyle Workman of the City Council, Mayoralty candidate at the May 3 city primaries, announced yesterday that he will open headquarters on the sixth floor of the Washington Building the latter part of the present week. A suite of rooms has been engaged and the personnel of the "Workman for Mayor" campaign committee will be announced with the opening of the headquarters.

"I am going right after Mayor Snyder in my campaign," said Mr. Workman yesterday. "For already Hearst's Examiner and Herald have begun their efforts to try to fool the people to secure votes for Snyder. We read in the Herald of a 'workman' for the Mayor, and it is well to know the truth about it."

"The inspired newspaper story credits the Mayor with economies for which the City Council and not the Mayor was responsible. The Mayor is credited with motorizing the fire department and with adding to the area of Griffith Park, and both of these matters were put through by the City Council."

"Let the Mayor's friends, the Hearst newspapers, speak to the truth about the Snyder administration, and the picture will not be a rosy one."

Irving Hellman is chairman of the Finance Committee for Mayor Snyder's campaign. The other members of the committee being Harry Vandever, Edgar G. Pratt, Orra E. Monette, H. H. Pettigill, Lucien N. Bruns, W. J. Pearson, Capt. James C. Dooley, Irwin J. Muma, Capt. Walter Brinkley, H. S. McKee, William Brophy and F. W. Blanchard.

An official housewarming will be held at the Snyder campaign headquarters, 345 South Hill street, next Monday at 3:30 p.m., under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Buxton, chairman of the women's executive committee. All of the speeches will be made by women and refreshments will be served.

The Association for Betterment of Public Service is expected to announce within the next ten days its attitude during the present campaign. The members are as yet undecided as to whether or not to endorse Councilman candidates before the primaries and then to ask support for a second list taken from the successful list after May 3, or to delay action until after the primaries and to endorse nine of the eighteen successful candidates at the May 3 election.

MAY, TAKE NO PART. It seems certain that the association will not endorse any Mayoralty candidate before the primaries, and it is considered probable that the organization will take no part in the Mayoralty fight at all.

And fearless minds climb soonest unto crowns. —[Shakespeare.]

Special was made at a meeting of city employees which was also addressed by Councilman Langdon.

UNCLE SAM'S STRONG BOX WELL FILLED

Eighteen Million Put in by Los Angeles Collector in Three Months.

Statistics furnished yesterday by Scott Carter, chief deputy in the office of Internal Revenue Collector Carter, show that the income tax collections for the first three months of 1921 were $17,144,553.38, as compared with $17,296,269.23 for the first quarter of 1920.

In January, 1920, the deposits were $2,060,806.99, compared to $1,703,082.39 for January of this year. February, 1920, they were $2,106,352.66; February, 1921, $2,632,812.92. In March, 1920, the deposits were $15,128,110.18; last month they were $12,405,654.07, an increase of nearly $700,000.

There were over $8,000 more returns filed this year than last, but many of the payments were not as large in 1921 as they were in 1920.

Special wartime taxes collected by Internal Revenue Collector Carter during March amounted to almost $1,900,000, says a statement issued yesterday.

The exact amount is $885,497.67. This grand total is made up of transportation tax, $361,097.36; motion picture and theater tickets, $252,536.81; the manufacturers' excise tax, amounted to $95,696.70; soft drinks and ice cream, $67,225.09; luxury tax, $59,531.50; tax on insurance policies, $21,930.99; tax on jewelry, $45,235.11.

The largest item of collection is the tax paid on railroad fares and vehicular transportation of freight, express by trucking motors, steam and electric roads.

BAIL IS FORFEITED.

Disappearance of Man Charged with Fraud Enriches County.

As the result of the disappearance of Patrick J. Murphy, alias John H. Kelly, said to have been an automobile dealer in this city in 1919, the county is now enriched to the extent of $1000. Justice Forbes Monday declared the bail of $1500 put up by the defendant for his appearance in court on that date should be forfeited. A week ago Justice Hanby declared $1500 similarly deposited as forfeited.

Murphy was to have appeared in court Monday on a charge of defrauding two local business men out of $2500 in a deal relating to the purchase of eleven auto trucks. He was also accused in Justice Hanby's court of embezzlement of an automobile.

NAB BOY BANDIT AFTER ROBBERY

Store Messenger Held Up by Youthful Indianan.

Thief is Captured After Hot Downtown Chase.

Attempts to Shoot Pursuers; Loot is Recovered.

"Well, I guess the only reason that I didn't kill anyone was because my revolver failed to explode. You see, I needed that $1500, and after I had it in my hands I intended to keep it all."

This is what Frank Bitter, 16 years of age, of Valparaiso, Ind., said yesterday when he was captured just after he had held up and robbed C. L. Miner, a messenger for the Rock Bottom Store, of a satchel containing $1500 in cash.

Shouting for assistance, Miner with Roy Farrell of 2213 North Broadway, Dan Kelly of 2213 North Broadway, and Dr. A. L. Barton of 2702 North Broadway, gave chase. Bitter was trapped at Mozart street and Avenue 21, and Kelly seized the youthful bandit's revolver just as he attempted to pull the trigger. The hammer of the revolver fell upon Kelly's finger and the weapon failed to explode. Bitter was overpowered and turned over to the police.

According to the story told by Bitter to the police, he was unable to obtain employment. Several days ago he learned that Miner, acting as a messenger for the Rock Bottom Store, at times carried quantities of money from one store to another. Yesterday, after purchasing a revolver, the youth went to the North Broadway store and waited for Miner to appear.

LANDLADY MUST PAY.

War Veteran's Mother, Locked Out of House, Awarded Damages.

Ernest U. Schroeter, acting as a judge of the Superior Court, decided Monday that Mrs. Louise Davidson was entitled to damages in her suit against her landlady, Mrs. Margaret Kenyon, and took under submission the amount to be awarded.

Mrs. Davidson asserted that she was evicted from the premises without notice at night and in the rain and at the time she was caring for a son who had been gassed in the war. The son was attended by a nurse. She said she was compelled to find lodgings after being locked out. Damages were asked in the sum of $20,500.

HOUSE MOVER SUED.

Twenty Thousand Asked by Man Who Ran Into Structure.

George R. Kress, Jr., a house mover, was named defendant in a suit filed yesterday by Walter Jensen, who declares that he drove his auto into a house being moved by Kress, wrecked the car and was injured himself. He asks $20,112 damages for negligence for leaving the house in the street unprotected by lights.

WOMAN LISTENS TO DEATH TALE.

Mrs. Lundberg Breathlessly Follows Doctor's Story.

Is Held to Answer on Charge of Slaying Sweetheart.

Cowboy Witness Makes Dinky
Court Picturesque.

Sitting in a corner of Justice Pollette's court yesterday, Mrs. Edith Lundberg listened breathlessly to a minute description of the wounds she is accused of having inflicted upon her supposed sweetheart, Linas Floyd Worden, Jr. As Dr. A. F. Wagner, County Autopsy Surgeon, told of the injuries caused by the bullets that he said to have fired into the body of Worden, she leaned forward that she might catch every word. Then she calmly sat back without apparent interest in the other testimony. She was held to answer on a charge of murder.

In striking contrast to the others in the courtroom, Harvey Clark, brother-in-law of the defendant, appeared dressed in full Mexican regalia, sombrero and all. It was explained that he is a motion-picture actor and had to leave the lot of a local company to go to court. He said he was at his home, 1227 West Twelfth street, on February 8, when he heard four shots. He went out and found Worden staggering from his automobile toward the house, and later he discovered the defendant on a top step of the porch.

In spite of admissions said to have been made by the young woman to Detective Sergeant Bean, no testimony was given that would indicate a motive for the shooting. Mr. Bean testified that Mrs. Lundberg shot young Worden twice and then turned the weapon upon herself.

L. F. Worden, Sr., father of the deceased, said his son and the defendant were in good spirits when he saw them last.

Testimony was adduced by Dep. Dist. Atty. Hill that would indicate Mrs. Lundberg purchased the weapon used in the slaying about twenty days before the shooting. Mrs. Lundberg was lodged in the County Jail to await trial in the Superior Court.

TRIAL DATE IS SET.

Second Case Against "Big Hutch" to be Heard in June.

The trial of Everett A. ("Big Hutch") Hutchings, accused in a second indictment of defrauding John A. Swanson, a farmer, of $29,100 in an asserted fake stock deal, was set for June 20 yesterday by Judge Willis. At the same time an appeal from the judgment of the court in a previous trial, in which the defendant was found guilty of grand larceny in defrauding J. B. Norris, a farmer, out of $51,000 in an asserted fake stock deal, was formalized.

POLITICS AND CRIME LINKED.

Parole System is Misused.

Administration for Vicious Affiliations.

Underworld Grows in Power in California.

The intermediate sentence and the parole system as applied to California are the tools of a corrupt machine, as utilized as to the root of administering justice, in a large measure of its growth and hasten the growth of crime.

This was the blunt answer which James E. Kerr, Pasadena jurist, gave in response to a direct question at the annual forum of the Men's Club at the First Universalist Church, Alhambra, 1899.

HONOR WAR'S DEAD TODAY.

The anniversary of the declaration of war by the United States will be observed at 2:30 p.m. today at Exposition Park with a memorial service under the auspices of the public affairs committee of the Friday Morning Club. The services will be in honor of those that died in the World War.

Representatives of all war organizations and many civic organizations will be present. The ceremony will center around the planting of poppy seeds gathered on the fields of France, will become an annual event.

Mrs. Frank T. Morrill, 2351 Thompson street, a niece of Marshal MacMahon of Franco-Prussian war, will preside.

Arrangements have been made under the direction of Mrs. H. H. Koons, chairman of the public affairs committee of the club.

to it for repeating them, but I warn you that it will be a very difficult matter to get such action through that body in the face of the opposition of the present administration. The parole and indeterminate sentence system are part of and feeders for a political machine. They create more jobs for the henchmen of that machine, they strengthen its already great hold upon the people and they, at the same time, increase the hold which the underworld has upon the government of this state.

"The underworld is in the ascendant in California in the matter of the administration of justice, and the people can thank these politicians for it."

Judge Robert L. Hubbard of Colorado Springs another guest of the club, also spoke against the parole system and said that Mr. Kerr's broad historical and legal argument on the subject was sound and helped to emphasize a genuine menace to the institutions of the republic.

In his formal address Mr. Kerr declared the parole system to be in violation of the Constitution, contrary to sound public policy and responsible for the crime wave which has been sweeping across the nation.

Three Theaters in Crown City Preparing to Close.

Plans were under way yesterday to carry the Pomona blue law fight into the higher courts. Though the law, which within thirty days will close on Sunday every amusement place in that city, was passed at the election last Monday with the vast majority of fifty-four votes, officials of the American League of Freedom announced that the constitutionality of such a law will be challenged in the Supreme Court, if necessary, to carry on the fight against the closing ordinance.

"The Pomona blue law fight was not alone an issue that concerned Pomona," said Harry Arthur, Jr., president of the American League of Freedom. "It was an issue that vitally affected the entire motion picture industry. Nor will the industry be satisfied with the results of the election. A recount will be requested."

If the Pomona blue law is to be accepted as constitutional, the three theaters that now operate in the city will close their doors. It was announced yesterday.

The final count of votes in Pomona gave a total of 2079 for and 2028 against the ordinance. The City Council will canvass the vote next Monday.

William A. Vandegrift, who has served four two-year Mayoralties, was defeated by Thomas R. Ovington. The vote was: Ovington, 2418; Vandegrift, 1871.

Other results were:

Joseph A. Allard, Jr., defeated C. Walter Guerin, incumbent, for City Attorney by a majority of one vote.

Joseph Mulien, incumbent, was re-elected City Treasurer, defeating James R. Hill by a 640 majority.

Carl H. Sanborn defeated David Ewart, incumbent, for Councilman. The following city officials were unopposed for re-election: Police Judge Harry H. Mason; Edwin T. Keiser, president of the Board of Education; Frank A. Hartman, E. G. Stahlman, George L. Reicher, members of the Board of Education.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

Woman Injured by Car Declared to be in Serious Condition.

Miss Violet Cope, 21 years old, of 1127 East Fifty-ninth street, was possibly fatally injured last night when she was struck by an automobile driven by Charles White, of 15 West Fifty-eighth street, as she was crossing Central avenue at Fifty-seventh street. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Police Surgeon Eggen said that possibly her skull was fractured. The accident was reported to have been unavoidable.

Smart Taffeta Frocks 26.50

For Women and Misses

One Style Sketched

Today is the last day of this sale—and choice is still most inviting!

Perhaps your neighbor has already shared its economies and you are wondering if there are more! Fortunately the size, color and style range was so evenly divided that the few remaining offer just as special value as any sold the first day—so you can undoubtedly find your size in a number of styles!

Qualities and Styles
Are Uniformly Superb

That was one of the distinctive features of this purchase—the uniform goodness of the values, the uniform desirability of the styles!

Frocks of exquisite quality taffeta for afternoon, street and every other taffeta frock occasion, including many that could be worn with appropriateness to any but the most formal function.

Light and dark shades—from misses' 14 to women's 44.

With Note Book Around the Store

Knitted Togs

Oh! Dear! What a lot we have missed by not having had knitted skirts before to wear with the much loved knitted sweaters! But let's not waste any time bawling the past—instead, hurry right down and see the knitted suits at Hamburger's that this eventful season has brought forth. They are simply stunning. 22.50. (Second Floor.)

Quilting

Now everybody has known about quilting since our great-grand-grandmothers were little girls—but who ever dreamed of wearing quilted satin coats before?

Not one—until an exclusive designer evolved the brilliant idea and now everybody is wearing them—that is everybody who wishes to be modishly attired.

One's fashion education is not complete this spring until one has seen the handsome quilted satin models in Hamburger's Garment Section. 45.00 to 120.00. (Second Floor.)

Rainsticks

The new English umbrella version for women! The latest innovation is named the "Princess" and one must properly call it a rainstick as the English do. English women have taken very strongly to the fashion of carrying it "cane-like" over the left arm, which accounts for the heavy, crooked amber handle that marks "The Princess" as ultra distinctive. Priced 15.00. (Main Floor)

Matinees

That is—matinee vanity cases. The daintiest little novelties—as flat as flat can be—and all bound round with the most exquisite silver filigree, with just enough gray silk choice in the center of each side to give a richly soft effect.

And that is not all to recommend them either—for the lining is the most delectable orchid taffeta that feminine hearts could dream of. 15.00. (Main Floor)

Mezzo-Tints

The next best thing to owning an original (and think how few can do that) is having a mezzo-tint.

The Art and Gift Shop at Hamburger's is justly proud of the truly wonderful collection of mezzo-tints signed by such artists as John Cother Webb and E. Milner.

Thermo Coats

None other than the new knitted sport coat that has won such favor with men!

Because it is all-wool, so firmly and closely woven and fits so snugly, the Thermo sports jacket is warm enough for any ordinary occasion if worn alone—and if necessary gives just the wanted "extra warmth" under any other coat. 6.00. (Main Floor)
